Dear Doug:

Many thanks for sending me a copy of your speech, "The Challenge of Economic Growth in the Free World."

I have read it with a great deal of interest and from the intelligence point of view consider your remarks most timely and constructive. I have taken the liberty of sending it on to some of my associates here for their information. I appreciate your thoughtfulness in bringing this to my personal attention.

With every best wish and kindest personal regards.

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles
Director

The Honorable C. Douglas Dillon
Acting Secretary of State
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Doug:

During the last weeks of Foster's life, I was in intimate contact with Jerry Greene and had an opportunity to observe his qualities of mind and spirit. While the work that he did over this period was in a sense beyond the ordinary call of his normal duties as a member of the Foreign Service, I would like to have his record in the Department reflect my own views, which I know are shared by Janet and all of us, that no one could have been more tactful, more efficient, helpful and understanding.

He has those qualities which should carry him far in his chosen career in the Foreign Service, and my only hope is that he will be given full opportunity for the exercise of his very great talents.

Faithfully yours,

Allen W. Dulles
Director
